FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What if I just moved and did not re-register? Will I be eligible to vote?

If you were previously registered in Los Angeles County and have not re-registered since you moved within the County's borders, you can vote at the polling place for your new address. You will be asked to vote a provisional ballot and provide your new address and your previous address on the provisional ballot envelope.

May I register to vote at my business address or may I use my P.O. Box number?

No. A person may only register to vote at his or her place of residence. A business address or a P.O. Box number may only be used as a mailing address.

I am a college student living on or around campus, away from home. Can I register with my college residence address?

Like all eligible citizens, any college student may register to vote using his/her college residence address or may choose to use his/her family residence. California law (Elections Code Section 2025) allows college students to establish domicile or legal residence where they attend school if they so desire.

I did not vote in the last election. Do I need to re-register?

No. You are registered to vote as long as you remain at the same address and you will continue to receive election materials in the mail. However, if you move to a different address or have not voted in the last several elections, you may be sent a notice requesting that you either confirm that you have not moved or provide current residence address information. Your registration may be cancelled for failure to respond to an address confirmation mailing or if you have not voted in any elections occurring between the date of the mailing and two consecutive federal general elections.

May I sign a petition if I am not registered to vote?

No. You must be a registered voter for your signature to be valid on a petition. If you complete and sign a voter registration form on the same date or a date prior to signing the petition, your signature will be valid. The elections official must receive the completed and signed voter registration form on or before the date the petition is filed with the elections office.
